When F. M. SLADE, Am. schr., Johnson, ar. alongside the wharf, soundings showed | Grays Harber from Hon., May 5. in the hold.

"Wherever it is, it is a bad leak." said Captain Trainor as he went over the side and landed on the wharf.

The Prosper left Hilo a couple of load of ohia ties for the Santa Fe railroad. The vessel put into Honolulu in a leaking condition, the eargo was unloaded, the vessel placed on the marine railway, and was supposedly tight

On leaving Honolulu the schooner ternoon put against head seas. Almuch, but water was discovered working into the hold. By sunset the water HIRAM BINGHAM, Am. schr., ar. had gained so rapidly that the hand first showed that she was taking about this increased to 6 inches. About midnight the steam pump was rigged, and when the engine took hold there were thirty inches of water to tackle. Yesterday morning Captain Trainor decided to put back to Honolulu.

She was picked up by the Matson tug Intrepid and towed into the harbor, and only when in the channel did Captain Trainor stop pumping operations. When Harbormaster Clark and Ales Lyle of the marine railway and twenty four inches.

An effort will be made to locate the leak, which seems to be a bad one, and if the vessel has to lay up for a long time the owners will be cabled to. If the leak is discovered soon and can easily be stopped, Captain Trainor hopes to be able to proceed to Redondo in a short time.

Logan made from Hon, for Midway Isle, June 26. an earnest plea for the raises, especialmore work than ever, and had even atevery evening. He said that more work was to be given them by the action of the Legislature in transferring other duties to the City Afterney's department, and Brown was also to do Cireuit Court work in addition to his police court work. The increases passed. The chief clerk is to get $110 and ger's job, $75, is cut out, thus depriving Willie Crawford of a job. Aylett said something about the Mayor letting the eat out of the bag, whatever that meant, and added that the Mayor had the "last say" in the matter, as he could veto the bill, and-"And I'm going to veto it, gentlemen," said Mayor Fern. "I have the veto power, but you have the majority of votes even then."

Logan said the raises in salaries were in keeping with the new duties imposed upon various departments by the Legislature. Some of the subordinates did the actual drudgery, but the heads of departments had additional duties imposed on them.

Aylett's resolution covering specific salaries for District Court employes was presented, as follows: , Hawaiian interpreter and clerk, $115 per month; fices.
